
ELIZABETH FROELICH

FROELICH--Elizabeth ("Betty"), 89 years young, died peacefully at home surrounded by loved ones January 7th. Spirited and full of life, she was a loving wife to the late Ralph Froelich; devoted mother and grandmother; loyal and generous friend to a far-reaching community of old and new acquaintances; a passionate world traveler and lover of NY arts and culture; and a dedicated advocate for the mentally ill, through long-time service on the board of the nonprofit Community Access. She is survived by Jo Grossman of Housatonic, MA; Nancy and William Nagle of East Hampton, NY; Lucy Rochambeau of New York City; William and Sandra Froelich of Ridgewood, NJ; Alexander and Danielle Froelich of New York City; and Nicholas and Chelsea Allen of Los Angeles. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Community Access, Attn: Development Office, 2 Washington Street, NY, NY 10004.

Published in The New York Times on January 10, 2013
